License evidence

Fab license field: CC BY 4.0

The Fab listing's license field identifies Creative Commons Attribution 4.0. The listing description separately states Creative Commons 0 (CC0) and says there are no restrictions. Those statements conflict. S0MA OpenLab therefore preserves attribution and treats CC BY 4.0 as the safer compliance baseline unless the creator clarifies otherwise.

S0MA OpenLab - third-party attribution policy

This record is retained with the S0MA OpenLab project to document the source, creator, licensing evidence and original presentation of third-party material. Where a source page contains inconsistent licensing statements, S0MA OpenLab follows the more attribution-preserving interpretation unless a clearer grant is obtained. Changes made inside S0MA OpenLab do not imply endorsement by the original creator.
